H3 Rankings

The University of Illinois is overall ranked 48 as of 2021, based on widely accepted parameters of excellence like research output, teaching, citations, employer reputation and international outlook.

The university provides top-notch courses, especially in Engineering and Technology and Physical Sciences, holding rank 23 and 31 respectively as of 2021. It also has an impressive World Reputation Ranking; 32nd as of 2020. [Data as per Times Higher Education]

H3 University of Illinois IELTS Requirements

Admission Requirements for English Proficiency:

#1 All applicants who do not speak English as their first language must provide TOEFL or IELTS scores to prove their English competence.

#2 Official TOEFL/ETS or IELTS scores must be presented in their entirety (please see instructions below for Submitting Official Scores regarding our institution code and programme number).

#3 To be legitimate, TOEFL or IELTS results must be less than two years old as of the first day of class during the planned term of entrance.

Minimum admissions standards are listed in the chart below:

English Proficiency Test	Minimum for Limited Status Admission with English as a Second Language Placement Test Required*	Minimum for Full Status Admission
TOEFL iBT	79-102	Greater than 102
TOEFL CBT	213-253	Greater than 253
TOEFL PBT	550-610	Greater than 610
IELTS (academic exam)	6.5-7.0	Greater than 7.0

If the results on TOEFL or IELTS are satisfactory but show that more English language studies are necessary, enrollment in the English program is required on arrival at the university as a Second Language Placement Test (EPT).

Applicants are typically expected to enrol in non-credit "English as a Second Language" courses and take a reduced academic load beginning the first semester at the university based on the ESL EPT scores.

Students wishing to apply to online programmes must meet the full status admissions criteria.

H3 IELTS(International English Language Testing System) Exam

h4 Format of Testing

Four papers exist in IELTS: hearing, reading, writing and speaking. Two separate IELTS modules exist for university and general education. In all modules, the speaking and hearing examinations are the same, but the reading and writing tests vary.

Paper	Content	Time
Listening	40 Questions	Approx 30 minutes
Reading	40 Questions	60 minutes
Writing	2 Tasks	60 minutes
Speaking	3 Parts	11-14 minutes

All IELTS exams are performed on the same day, without interruptions. However, the speaking portion can be finished up to one week before or after the other examinations. The entire duration of the test is 2 hours 45 minutes.

h4 Courses for University Studies

You can choose among Bachelor's, postgraduates' or professional enrollment, e.g. physicians and nurses.

h4 General Module of Training

If you want to relocate to an English-speaking nation (for example, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, or the United Kingdom), or if you want to train or study at a lower level, this is the option for you.

H3 IELTS Preparation

It is vital to prepare for the test to have the best chance of performing well in IELTS. To assist you in preparing for your test, we have IELTS Ninja.

h4 Comprise the Test Format

Get acquainted with the exam structure by checking the test content and the questions and task categories for each segment. The norms and regulations of IELTS are very crucial to read. These are specified in the notification to applicants and the declaration in the application form.

h4 Questions from IELTS Sample

Practising samples might help you get acquainted with the test format. For your IELTS test, we've included sample questions on IELTS Ninja. This gives you a sense of what to expect in the examinations for hearing, reading, writing and speaking.

h4 Official Exam of IELTS Progress Check

Before your IELTS exam, you can know where you stand. The IELTS progress control is a formal IELTS online practise test with professional and qualified IELTS markers. IELTS progress takes both timed or untimed tests. With this, you can get feedback with an indicative overall band score for each section: listening, reading, writing, speaking. to help you prepare and understand the areas to be improved or targeted.

H5 Conclusion

The University of Illinois is a top academic institution and an ideal choice for someone who wants to pursue higher studies. The IELTS exam is one of the important prerequisites for international applicants to get accepted into this institution.

IELTS Ninja provides important helpful materials, such as sample questions, practice tests, etc., to help you prepare well for the IELTS and score a great overall band score in all the sections.
